Page 1-05 ov 00032 MPC - Document 56-12 - Filed 09/15/2036 - Page 1 of 3

1	Page 1 In the United States District Court
2	FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA
3	LISA BROWN, M.D., :
4	Plaintiff :
5	v. : Civil Action No. 05-32-E :
6	HAMOT MEDICAL CENTER, : Defendant :
7
8
9	Deposition of JAMES A. PEPICELLO, M.D., taken
10	before and by Janis L. Ferguson, Notary Public in
11	and for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on Friday,
12	December 16, 2005, commencing at 9:37 a.m., at the
13	offices of Scarpitti & Mead, 1001 State Street,
14	Suite 800, Erie, Pennsylvania 16501.
15
16	For the Plaintiff: Patrick Sorek, Esquire
17	Leech Tishman Fuscaldo & Lampl, LLC 525 William Penn Place
18	30th Floor Pittsburgh, PA 15219
19	For the Defendant:
20	Kerry M. Richard, Esquire Tobin O'Connor Ewing & Richard
21	5335 Wisconsin Avenue NW Suite 700
22	Washington, DC 20015
23
24	Reported by Janis L. Ferguson, RPR
25	Ferguson & Holdnack Reporting, Inc.
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

Page 78 Page 80 A. Scott Kern. MS. RICHARD: I actually have just a couple 1 1 2 Q. Okay. questions. 2 A. Who came to me when this issue first arose and 3 discussed it with me specifically. CROSS-EXAMINATION 4 5 O. What did he say? BY MS. RICHARD: 5 A. In so many words, to summarize, he said, I know I 6 Q. Earlier when Mr. Sorek was asking you questions shouldn't be here, but I want to discuss this with you, and 7 about any training that might be provided to doctors at the It won't come up any further. He explained why he was 8 hospital, I think he was referring to personnel laws, and there. The reason was his -- he had a personal relationship 9 you indicated no. Is there an orientation for doctors? with Dr. Brown through family members. And basically was -10 was asking about the process and asking me to consider the A. Yes, there is. 11 Q. And these are for newly privileged physicians? circumstances carefully. 12 13 Q. Did he ask you to reverse the decision? A. Correct. 13 Q. Who conducts that orientation? A. He asked if there was a way to reverse the 14 15 decision. I don't recall that he specifically asked me at A. The Chief Medical Officer. 15 Q. So that would be you in some cases? that time to reverse the decision. 16 Q. Did you have any other contacts with anybody? A. Up until a few months ago, it was me, yes. 17 17 18 A. Yes. Attorney Jim McNarrara and Attorney Joel Q. And who is it now? 18 19 Snavely, who I believe at the time were representing Dr. 19 A. Dr. Richard Long. Brown, came and spoke to me and, again, asked me about the Q. Is there any - during that orientation process, 20 circumstances, asked me if there was some way that we could, is there any coverage of expected behavior of physicians? 21 In so many words, work this out. And we discussed it for a A. Yes, there is. 22 while. I did not give any indication of anything beyond Q. Does that coverage include the hospital's 23 that. It really ended at the discussion between the two of expectations of physicians with regard to discrimination or 24 them and me. harassment? Page 81 Page 79 Q. Did they ask you to consider reversing the 1 MR. SOREK: Object to the form as leading. MS, RICHARD: I'm asking a specific question. 2 decision? 2 Q. Does it include any coverage of those issues? A. Yes. 3 Q. And did you say no? MR. SOREK: It's still leading. A. I don't recall that I said no. I recall that --MS. RICHARD: That's fine. what I do recall is that I said we have a process in place MR. SOREK: Okay. 7 to deal with this, and we will let the process take its A. Yes, it does. 8 course. Q. Can you tell me whether there's anything in writing that goes to doctors conveying the expectations with 9 Q. In your experience, does the process ever result in reversal of a decision of somebody, for instance, at a regard to discrimination or harassment. A. Yes. Contained within the medical staff handbook program director level? 12 A. I'm trying to recall my own - Dr. Brown's case in the section that contains the fair hearing plan, there is 12 a section specifically that deals with expectations with was the only incident in recent memory. When I harken back respect to physician behavior to colleagues, to staff, to to my own experience with our surgical residency. It was 15 patients, and so forth. ultimately the program director's decision was upheld. 16 Q. Thank you. Is John Lubahn a member of the faculty 16 Q. Was it your opinion that the committee had the of the orthopedic surgery residency program? 17 discretion to overrule Dr. Lubahn, 1 they chose to? A. Yes, he is. 18 A. Oh. ves. Q. Are there any contacts that you have had with 19 Q. Was it your opinion that the medical education anybody -- not counting your counsel -- with regard to Lisa 20 committee had discretion to overn te the grievance committee Brown that you haven't been asked about here today? if they chose to? 22 A. Yes. Q. Can you tell me about those. 23 Q. And was it your opinion the medical staff A. Yes. I had a visit from a Board member. 24 executive committee had discretion to overrule the decision?

25

A. Yes, they did.

21 (Pages 78 to 81)

Q. Which Board member?

Case 1:05-cv-00032-MBC Document 56-12 Filed 09/15/2006 Page 3 of 3

		Page 82		Page 84
	1	Q. And what about the Board of Directors?	1	A. Yeah, there were a couple of questions about, you
	2	A. Yes, they did.	2	know, would it be possible to and, again, I really don't
	3	Q. You indicated that you had presented the case to	3	remember exactly - whether it would be possible to make
	4	the Board for consideration on I think it was May 25th of	4	some accommodation in her training or - again, it's hard to
	5	2004.	5	go back that far and remember exactly. But there was
	6	<ol> <li>I believe that was the date, yes.</li> </ol>	6	discussion about what were the alternatives here in terms of
	7	<li>Q. Is it your memory, even though you can't remember</li>	7	this particular decision.
	8	specific questions, that there were questions asked by Board	8	Q. About how long, if you remember, did the Board
	9	members?	9	consider this matter of Dr. Brown?
	10	A. Yes, there were.	10	A. I don't know exactly, but, you know, probably 30
ŀ	11	Q. Would you say there were a lot of questions asked	11	minutes. Maybe even a bit longe:
	12	by Board members?	12	Q. And at the end, how did they vote?
	13	MR. SOREK: Object to the form.	13	A. They voted to uphold the recommendation, and it
	14	A. Yes, there were.	15	was a unanimous vote.  O. Did Mr. Kern vote?
	15	Q. And can you tell me whether any Board member questioned whether the decision should be overturned and Dr.	16	A. No. He was excused.
	16	Brown allowed to come back?	17	MS. RICHARD: I have not ing further, then.
	17	A. Yes, Mr. Kern did make a statement to that effect	18	The real maps a rest for any for anoty distin
	18 19	at the Board meeting.	19	REDIRECT EXAMINATION
	20	Q. Can you tell me what else you remember Mr. Kern	20	BY MR. SOREK:
	21	saying at the Board meeting.	21
	22	A. Again, not specifically, but he did make a plea,	22	Q. Dr. Pepicello, what is the cversight that the
1	23	If you will, to the Board to consider this and consider	23	hospital has for compliance with these expectations of
	24	reversing this decision.	24	physician behavior? That is, you talked about the handbook,
I	25	Q. Did he suggest that there might be legal exposure	25	and you talked about the expectations. How does the
-
	_	Page 83	_	Page 85
	1	Page 83 to the Board if they went forward with this decision?	1	Page 85 hospital check to see that the expentations are complied
	1 2	.	1 2
		to the Board if they went forward with this decision?	ł -	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied
	2 3 4	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?	2 3 4	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the
	2 3 4 5	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made	2 3 4 5	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about
	2 3 4 5 6	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.	2 3 4 5 6	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that
	2 3 4 5 6 7	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?	2 3 4 5 6 7	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes. Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues. Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	hospital check to see that the expentations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.  Q. — by Board members?  A. Yes.  Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.  Q. — by Board members?  A. Yes.  Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is In fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kem?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.  Q. — by Board members?  A. Yes.  Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role.  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an ad hoc
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.  Q. — by Board members?  A. Yes.  Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case?  A. Yes. Questions were asking about were there	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an ad hoc basis. If there's a complaint by a patient, a staff member,
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes.  Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues.  Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kem?  A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him.  Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you —  A. Yes.  Q. — by Board members?  A. Yes.  Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case?  A. Yes. Questions were asking about were there alternatives to the recommendation.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an ad hoc basis. If there's a complaint by a patient, a staff member, a colleague about a behavior or a series of behaviors, it
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes. Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues. Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern? A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him. Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you — A. Yes. Q. — by Board members? A. Yes. Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case? A. Yes. Questions were asking about were there alternatives to the recommendation. Q. And did you give them any alternatives?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an and hoc basis. If there's a complaint by a patient, a staff member, a colleague about a behavior or a series of behaviors, it would be brought to my attention, and the first step might
	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes. Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues. Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern? A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him. Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you — A. Yes. Q. — by Board members? A. Yes. Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case? A. Yes. Questions were asking about were there alternatives to the recommendation. Q. And did you give them any alternatives? A. I didn't suggest any specific alternatives to	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an ad hoc basis. If there's a complaint by a patient, a staff member, a colleague about a behavior or a series of behaviors, it would be brought to my attention, and the first step might be sitting down with the person and getting more facts and
The state of the s	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	to the Board if they went forward with this decision?  A. He did, yes. Q. Did he suggest that it might be a claim for breach of contract?  A. I don't recall the exact statement that he made specifically about the legal Issues. Q. Did the Board ask questions of Mr. Kern? A. I don't — I don't recall exactly whether they asked — whether any specific questions were directed at him. Q. Okay. Were questions asked of you or — I'm going to also — let me ask you just that question first. Were questions asked of you — A. Yes. Q. — by Board members? A. Yes. Q. And did any Board member suggest to you that there might be some alternative to upholding Dr. Lubahn's decision in this case? A. Yes. Questions were asking about were there alternatives to the recommendation. Q. And did you give them any alternatives?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	hospital check to see that the experitations are complied with?  A. The Chief Medical Officer is in fact, any administrative officer, but it's part of the role of the Chief Medical Officer to investigate complaints about physician behavior or physician responsiveness. And that person, the Chief Medical Officer, is the one who exerts the oversight.  Q. Do you know whether, in fact, that there is review do you know whether, in fact, that the Chief Medical Officer does that?  A. Yes.  Q. Have you done it in your role:  A. Yes.  Q. Describe how you do it. For example, you might say something like, well, once a month I get a report from "X," or I review this file, something like that. Can you describe what you do to carry out your oversight.  A. Well, typically, it's done on a on an and hoc basis. If there's a complaint by a patient, a staff member, a colleague about a behavior or a series of behaviors, it would be brought to my attention, and the first step might